

Christ is not seeking numbers in His Ranks; but only the truly Repentant; True Disciples

Each soul must exist with a clear conscience before our Creator;<http://biblehub.com/romans/2-15.htm>; the devil himself often disguises himself as a good person or messenger of light http://biblehub.com/2_corinthians/11-14.htm in such a way as to frame Christ and his followers for deviant and evil actions (like the holocaust of WWII). Yahoshuah the Messiah (aka Jesus Christ) warned of those coming in His Name; disguising themselves as his followers but said to watch their actions <http://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Matthew+7%3A15&version=KJV> and my point is if He warned of such persons who pretend to be Christians or goodly; then how much the more should we be wary of those who can't even listen to the words of Christ as this writer states plainly. <http://www.lifenews.com/2013/08/04/im-a-pro-life-atheist-but-the-pro-life-movement-is-shutting-me-out/> <http://biblehub.com/acts/7-57.htm> those who can not or will not listen to God's words <http://biblehub.com/luke/10-16.htm> have no part in God's Kingdom and are like weak willows in the wind that sway with every gentle breeze. In other words, have not the fortitude to stick with their convictions when true adversity looms. Christ did not assuage the public to gather numbers of supporters; He sought the truly repentant; true disciples; and as such, atheists/unbelievers can cry all they want; but until they repent; it is best not to associate with in any way such persons who hold such a truly insane worldview (except to declare to them the Gospel that if they should ever wish to come into their right mind and KNOW the Creator of the Universe they will need to Repent and Call Upon the Risen Christ). We do not need numbers to further the cause of the Creator and Christ; we do not need to coddle sinners, atheists, or any other religious or claiming to be irreligious person in our ranks. They have the freedom to choose their own causes and actions that does not mean we have to change to accommodate them in any way. It does mean if they wish to work with us side by side; they will need to change by the Power of the Creator as all of us have. Trust no one and especially anyone who does not bear the name of the Risen Savior Proudly. <http://biblehub.com/john/6-26.htm> If you are an organization of the faithful followers of Jesus Christ; you have every right and responsibility to keep it as such. Unbelievers who wish to work with you will need to understand that clearly. Remember how Christ chose the 12 and lived with them and worked with them daily; while declaring the Gospel to the public in general. As followers of His it is wise to follow His example. Work with believers while declaring the Gospel to unbelievers; even if they whine about not being able to join your charity because you won't deny Christ in you in the process (cease to speak His words; follow His Commands; and automatically glorify Him in your thoughts, words and deeds). Read the letter carefully; this person is asking Christian charities to change their functions which is as normal as breathing for them in order to accommodate a person who refuses to receive Christ themselves (<http://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=John+3%3A15-21&version=KJV>) the charities that refused to do that for one unbeliever or many were wise in their choice of actions and I praise them for it. Snakes don't infiltrate ministries by announcing their intentions blatantly; they pretend to be harmonious on certain grounds and once an entrance is gained the demonic influence weaves the deceptive and destructive lies that have kept such persons in darkness to this day. In public declare the Gospel but in your homes, and dedicated Christian workplaces or dedicated Christian charities, try the spirits and if they have not the common ground of the Resurrected Christ; have nothing to do with them in such settings http://biblehub.com/1_john/4-1.htm. (their proposed assistance is nothing compared to the destructive darkness and influence upon their souls that so enters in by them) Christ is the greater; but as I stated in His Ministry; His work; He had believers close to Him; the unbelievers He called to repentance publicly; all who are wise follow His example.
